“ Our thoughts and prayers go out to the Machado family at the loss of your dear and loving Raul. Raul & I worked for the city of SA in the early 70's and I still remember when he would drive up to gas pumps at the SE center and I would always kid him about running around the city wasting gas. Yet I knew his job as an inspector took him to all parts of the city everyday. A job he did very well. My wife Carmen remembers he was a very athletic individual during their high school years at So. San. To our compadres Jim & Hope and your entire family we will always remember the Machado family as loving & caring people. God Bless and rest in peace our brother Raul.

“ Raul, I wish we could've had more time to spend together the past few years. Unfortunately, your condition and mine made that difficult to do. One of my favorite memories of you is when we were in middle school and you would come over on Saturday mornings. My mom would tell you that I was sleeping but you would insist that I wouldn't mind if you woke me up. You would come in, tell me to move over, and fall back to sleep until breakfast was ready. I'll miss you, Rola! Your friend always, JESSE F. ALDANA
