“ I have just seen this obituary. Raúl was my uncle and dear friend... He was a special friend when I served in the US Army at Fort Sam... I so enjoyed visiting his home at the treehouse address... I am so sorry I did not attend his memorial services. Rest in peace Tio... you will be remembered fondly in this neck of the woods.

“ Raul and I have so many things in common. We both worked and retired from the post office. Our wives also worked and retired from the post office. He had two grandsons as do I and his love for them was evident as is mine. We often talked about them during our golf days. And of course, we both expressed our loves for our wives. We both loved the Spurs and the Cowboys and spending 4+ hours playing golf we spent many hours talking about many things, life, politics religion, the past and of course the future. I will miss our times on the golf course, and I will miss my friend Raul. May he rest in peace.
