

Ray Anthony Moreno

November 17, 1965 - October 25, 2022

Ray A. Moreno

November 17, 1965 - October 25, 2022

Ray A. Moreno went to be with the Lord on October 25, 2022, at the age of 56. He was born on November 17, 1965 in San Antonio, TX. He has reunited with his wife Sylvia and parents Johnny and Rebecca Moreno. Ray will be greatly missed by his children, Shelby and Nicolas Moreno; brother, John Albert Moreno-Kershner (Dennis); and sister, Rebecca Garza (Oscar). Ray was also a dog dad to Bailey Coco.

Ray retired 20 years from the City of San Antonio Fleet Operations. Following, he worked at Bruckner's Truck Center as a Outside Parts Sales Associate. Ray, also known by family and friends as Ram, enjoyed hunting with his buddies and supporting sports teams like UT, Texas A&M, (contradicting, I know) and the San Antonio Spurs. Our departed was well known by those he loved by having the biggest and kindest heart, someone you could always go to in a time of need. We will all miss him greatly.

Visitation will be on Thursday, November 3rd, 2022 from 4:30 to 8:00 p.m. with a Rosary to be recited at 6:30 p.m. at Mission Park South. Funeral procession will depart the funeral home at 9:30 a.m. for a Funeral Mass at 10:00 a.m. at St. Margaret Mary's Catholic Church on Friday, November 4th, 2022.

Interment to follow at Mission Burial Park South.

“ My condolences to all the Moreno family. This is Ben Garcia. The Morenos were my second family. I knew Ray when he was a little boy. Johnny would take him to work sometimes, and he would ride his bike all over hanger and outside. Sorry I took so long to do this. Health issues. My condolences also for Sylvia how I never met but she would send me pictures and Christmas cards. RIP. It was a shock to me to hear about Ray. We had gone to eat a few times and I would meet him at the cemetery. to pray for Johnny, Becky, Sylvia and for my Son also Ben III. They are in heaven now and am praying for them. GOD Bless you Ray. He loved Sylvia very much. I could see it in his eyes... RIP my friends

“ I had the honor of being a co-worker to Mr. Moreno at Fleet Services for 20 years and I can say he was the coolest, most understanding person who gave everyone he encountered a 2nd chance. His ethical outlook on doing what was right, not what was fast & easiest was his motto. Thank you for the memories and the legacy you left. John 3:16.

“ We still in shock about the news! I've known Ray through Sylvia, she used to be my Supervisor at Air Force Services. The last conversation and saw each other was Syl viewing. His words to me that he just going to get the kids settled and once he does he will follow Syl and said to me that she will wait for him. I said we all miss her and jus hang in there. Not knowing he wanted to be with so soon!! 😞 Their love for each other is inspiring. Nico and Shelby your parents will be watching you both from a far. Again sending you our condolences 🌸 Much love, Esper and Paul Baldonado
