“ I ran into him when we both took the prep course to take CPA exam. Later a chance meeting in Kroger store made me decide to start my own accounting business. May his soul rest in peace. My condolences are to his family. Only time will heal missing him.

“ I am so sorry for the loss of Gil. I will miss seeing him at Holy Spirit during mass. He was always so friendly and kind hearted. May God be with your beautiful family during this difficult time. I wish I could be there in person. I pray that one day soon we will all be seeing each other again. Love, Heather Kelley
