“ My deepest most sincere condolences to the Castilleja family on the passing of Raymond. I am saddened! Raymond & I became good friends when we attended Harlandale. He was a great person with a good sense of humor, great personality, funny and always happy. I remember how proud he was when he would dress in his ROTC uniform! He was always a sharp dresser! Raymond would tell me he wanted to work and be successful. At one point we parted ways. About 2 years ago we ran into each other at his work place and began communicating. We were able to reflect on the past. We talked about our families, our siblings, our parents visiting each other's home. We had great conversations many about our own kids and grandkids. He told me he had beautiful kids and loved them very much. Raymond would say "jane my daughters are beautiful & I'm proud of my son's accomplishments"! After all these years he seemed to be the same, fun, funny and a happy person, still the same sharp dresser, the same personality. He was still the same Raymond! I will never forget his laugh. Raymond may be gone but never forgotten! I will always remember him! May he rejoice in heaven for all eternity!

Rest in peace Raymond

“ My condolences to his family.
Ray and I have known each other since high school and had the pleasure of working in the same business (Ray with Kraft Foods and myself with General Mills) for over 30 plus years. I will miss his sense of humor and his outlook of life. He is one friend that I can truly say lived his life to the fullest. Ruben Herrera.

“ To my handsome cuzzzz, Raymond:

I keep thinking of our funny conversations specifically when I would say something out of line and you would always tell me “te sales – cuzzz (which means you’re way out of line) and we would laugh out loud.” And you would ask me “cuzzzz, why can’t we get together with our other cousins?” You would always say it when one of our loved ones passed and there we were at the funeral homes. Well here we are Ray, at your passing and we did not get together with our other cousins...my heart is broken into pieces.

As I grieve for you cuzzzz, I carry you in my heart. I will not forget the great messages you would send me “Good morning, my beautiful cuzzzz - I love you and our chatting about our political differences.”

Good byes...are not forever, are not the end; it simply means – I’ll miss you until we meet again.

I love you my handsome, cuzzzz.

“ Our condolences to all the Castilleja family, and all his loved ones left behind. We were extremely saddened to hear the news that Ray is gone. We will always remember him as the funny, loving, kind hearted guy he was.

He was always ready to strike up a conversation and always seemed glad to see us anytime we crossed paths. Say Hi to my beautiful Mama in Heaven, & your beloved mom and pop too💕. I imagine both all of you hugging each other and talking about old times.

Gone way too soon, but we meet again Ray, until then thank you for being you. You will be sorely missed by all who had the privilege to know you.
