The world will miss a great man. Bob or Bobby, as we so lovingly called him will be missed for many reasons: his crafty and sometimes mischievous sense of humor, which took many that did not know him by surprise, always united us in hilarity and laughter. He had an unyielding love of God, family, country, and the Dallas Cowboys. He loved his wife and children unequivocally. We take peace in knowing that he labor's no longer. He is in heaven now free of the ailments that bound him, where his promotion to being with the Lord leaves many envious. Rest in peace in the Lord's arms, Bobby Glass.

“ I knew Raymond (Bobby) for only a few years, but it didn't take long to see that he was a great man. He always had a joke, or something to say that would make you smile. May God give him the rest he deserves and may God also bring his family peace and comfort in the days ahead.

“ Raymond was so funny.He loved the Cowboys .we always disagreed about our football teams we liked ,but we never let that friendship get in the way.He would get mad about the dogs next door to him.He was always pulling funny stunts on fb in a video.He was a sweet and caring person.He will NEVER be forgotten ever.
