Raymond Moore Gonzalez served in the U.S. Navy as an E4 during the Vietnam War on the USS Navasota (AO-106), a fleet oiler. The primary mission was to provide fuel to the fleet which made it necessary for the fighting ships to return to port when they were running low on fuel, ammunition, food and supplies. Raymond also handled the logistics on the USS Passumpsic (AO-107) such as records of what was being transferred, measured tanks before and after delivery, sent oil to other ships and different fuels for jets. He received three medals: National Defense Service Medal, Vietnam Service Medal, Vietnam Campaign Medal. After his service in the military he met Lucia Gonzalez the love of his life and best friend at a coffee shop in downtown San Antonio. They were married for 48 years. Raymond enjoyed his family, the outdoors, the ocean and being a business owner. He had a giving heart and would do anything for his family. He had a great sense of humor, and was a kid at heart. He was great at offering a listening ear and advise. He was a man of his word and a man of faith.
