“ Ray will surely be missed by me and all who knew him. He always had a smile and a funny story to tell. There was a time when he began, in jest, to call me by my husband's name, Joe, so I in turn would call him Rose. After that, that was our first greeting each time I saw him. He and his Rose were truly a beautiful couple. May he rest in peace.

“ Rose and the family of Raymond E. Moravitz:
My wife Pat and I want to express our deepest sympathy for your loss. Raymond was a very fine man. I can remember quite well the times we would see him there at Frank and Florence's home when we were kids growing up. We would visit Frank and Florence many times because they would take us fishing to Barrnet's tank. When Raymond and family would be there, Raymond would joke around with us, and we would get to visit and play with the kids. Great times back then, lots of memories. Raymond will be missed. Our deepest and sincere condolences.
