“ We only knew him as our back yard neighbor, however, knew his late wife from St. Leo's catholic church. We would always talk about his avocado tree, he and my husband each planted a small tree, my husband managed to have our freeze, but, Mr. Munoz's tree grew and grew so tall and big, he didn't have to cover it from the cold anymore. It was funny to see both men fight the squirrels, one for the avocados, and the other for the pecans. (the only thing my husband could grow are pecan trees) We will miss Mr. Munoz very much, and pray for God's comfort on his family! God Bless!

“ My condolences to my many cousins in SA, please know Im thinking of you all and there in spirit during this time. Just loved my Tio Raymond and his conversations he had to share, never a dull story. His mind was always sharp. Gonna miss him at the reunions for sure, glad he witnessed and enjoyed our new venue the last couple of years. May God wrap his arms around each of you and bring comfort in knowing your Dad is with your Mom once again. God Bless you all my beautiful cousins.
