“ I was unlucky enough to serve as a Store Director under Raynell at SA#23.

She was Homophobic towards me after a partner told her I was a DJ at the BONHAM EXCHANGE and they witnessed me kissing another man. YES it was true but none of her business what i do away from HEB.

Raynell covered up the sexual harassment case between GM Manager Martin and GM Lead Rosa to were she made Rosa feel uncomfortable and coercing Rosa to withdraw her Statement.

Raynell allowed Racism in here store with Jay Woodard with this store director if you were Black Or Brown you were either demoted or forced to step down I am so glad he had a Heart Attack and is no longer with the company.

SEE YA IN HELL Raynell

“ I see this picture of her smiling and it reminds me of how much the devil smiles at you even as he is about to condemn you to hell. She was truly Lucifer on earth and we are all better for her not being on earth anymore.

“ She was a bad bad lady who treated me like I did not matter. I can not say I miss her. Good bye lady.

“ So glad she is gone. The damage this woman did will be felt for years. She was truly the most disingenuous people I have ever met and everything was all about her.

“ What a great friend, and so many memories of being goofy teenagers together. Football games, the coast, sleep overs, and lots and lots of volleyball practices. During two a day practices it was everyone piling into one or two cars and heading to her house for lunch and naps. I am strangely happy thinking about it, and devastatingly sad at the same time. I love you girl. I will write you a note in English so we can plan our weekend...

Definitely unique but not encouraging in anyway. She was just a bad human being.

“ I have lived for over 55 years in the vicinity of HEB at Huebner and Babcock, shopping their nearest store for years. They have had different locations during this time. Raynell was the best manager of their store ever. She really cared for the store, the employees and especially their customers, of which I have been one, and many times not stopping at Walmart, but going on to HEB because of Raynell. She tried so hard to beat the demon sapping away her life. she was a lovely person, a woman of achievement and a role model for other women. She will be missed by all. Mary Rogers

Mary, be honest...Raynell was a shit storm who negatively affected a lot of people. You say the demon sapping away her life...she was the demon. This is a time for honesty and this was not a good woman.

“ Unfortunately I only knew Raynell for a short period of time. She welcomed me in her home for Thanksgiving in 2022. I immediately could see that she was a ray of sunshine. Through her smiles, kindness, and listening to her stories, it was obvious that her love of family, friends, and her work is what made her so happy. I admired her for her strength and positive attitude, especially during her struggles. My deepest condolences to her family during this time.

“ Such a high-spirited lady, I will treasure our interactions, she was such an "all about people first," we hugged, we smiled, and we both loved football. God bless her family, thank you to her children for sharing your mom, an honor to have her in my life. HEB True Exceptional Leader. RIP Raynell

Hi Sylvia, Raynell was not a good person. The world is a better place with people like Raynell not walking the face of the earth. The sun and moon shine more brightly with people like Raynell gone....thank you Lord!! Wish I would have never met this person that was devoid of any soul. She hid behind her children and charities but was just a bad human being who talked behind peoples backs and relished in making people suffer. I am glad she is gone and would tell her children the same thing.
