“ Dear Sandra and Family, I am so shocked and saddened to learn of RB's passing, I did not know until I received your note on a Christmas card this morning. He always seemed so nice and very supportive of your volunteer work for The Institute of Texan Cultures. Wish you could have had him around a while longer, but it sounds like you two made some great memories together while RB was here. I could not have known a nicer couple. You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ A true gentleman, met with RB in San Antonio, when got an attachment with the Canine section a number of years ago. Soon after met RB & Sandra in London. This resulted in more visits to San Antonio. and with RB & Sandra on one occasion, toured along the border to El Paso and a day visit to Mexico. On another occasion met up with them in Vancouver and toured the border there, not forgetting their visit to U.K. and a tour of England & Scotland, I think we also toured Ireland (age - memory). During trip of Canada Mary wanted to meet up with a 'mountie'. On the return to Vancouver was stopped by RMP .car issued a speed ticket to RB, Mary thought it was wonderful to meet up with a real ,mountie, I don,t think RB was too happy. WONDERFUL DAYS OLD FRIEND. Sandra we thank you for allowing us into your life. Jock & Mary.
