

Reba Louise Scott

April 8, 1938 - May 20, 2025

Reba Louise Halstead Scott, went to be with the Lord on Tuesday, May 20, 2025.

She was born April 8, 1938 in Jersey Shore, PA to the late Erastus and Clara Moore Halstead.

Reba earned her nursing license in October 1959, and worked at the McAllen Texas Hospital until the birth of her children.

She was always involved with their school and church as Room Mother, PTA, Plays and Sports. She was very creative and self-taught in many of the activities she did. She made and decorated wedding cakes as a side job. She made her own Christmas and greeting cards. She painted, made Barbie doll clothes and lots of Halloween costumes for Jim, Clara and Herself – She loved to make and dress up in costumes and not just for Halloween. She won 1st. Place honors several years for her Parade Floats and costumes in the Terrell Hills July 4 Celebration Parades. She was a great cook, always trying new recipes, sharing with friends and neighbors. She loved the Pittsburgh Steelers, reading western books and playing games.

She will always be remembered as a very devoted wife, mother and friend.

She is preceded in death by her husband Tommy James Scott Sr. her brothers Walter, Ronald, Harry, Vernon, Howard and Edward. Sisters Rosie

Barner and Betty Swafford.

She is survived by her Sister Verna Mae Ludwig, son Tommy James Scott Jr. (wife Theresa), daughter Clara Renne Scott Kistler (husband Brad), granddaughter Summer Dawn Renee Scott (wife Brittnay). And best friends of over 60 years Helen Crabtree and Mary Valentine.
