“ Words can't express the memories created for life! God always knew why and how our paths would cross at UIW. Your laughter was always contagious! Your ability to show kindness and friendship to the lives you touched! You never lacked an opinion and always had a Becky way of sharing it, lol! I'll never forget the pink backpack and puka shell necklace or extra credit shows we went too! Your life is celebrated by the memories made! Your legacy lives on in those you touched! Dance to the 80s and country music! Heaven gained an angel! You will be missed but in a better place!!

“ Beck,

Can't even explain how much we will miss you. I will always cherish the trips to the beach and speakerphone calls in the evenings over a cold refreshment to get updates. The stories and memories will go on and you will always be in our hearts.

You're with Mom and Dad now and resting in peace. You will probably get grounded again, as you were always the troublemaker.

I'm so grateful I was lucky enough to have you in my life and more so to be your brother.

With all my love, Cleb

“ My "sister", my friend. Life certainly will never be the same but damn mine is so much better for having you in it. The kindest heart and soul I know. The only one I could be completely me with. Now my Angel who can look down and laugh at me but also give me strength. You had a wonderful purpose and thank God there are 3 beautiful humans we can continue to see you in and share their joys as you would. You'll always be with me at the beach and most definitely when I'm shelling. We know you'll still be looking after our girls from above. Love and miss you always Aunt Beck!

“ Aunt Becky was the kindest soul. When I was pregnant & got stationed in Cali she drove my car all the way from Texas with my mom just so that I would have it there. I will always be so thankful for the memories we share. She was always in my corner. She never got to meet my son but now since she's in heaven she gets to look over him everyday. Im grateful for that. In loving memory. The BEST aunt anyone could have. 🍷 -Al

“ My condolences to Becky’s family. She was born with a golden, giving heart. She was so very friendly and never met a stranger. She was my dearest friend since kindergarten. I will truly miss her raspy voice, awesome laugh and our funny escapades. I don’t know what I will do without my buddy. She is pain-free and in good company in heaven. I am sure she has them all laughing. She will always be my best friend and now my angel. Love, Kelly Castanos
