

Rebecca "Becky" Diane Thieleman

November 2, 1945 - October 16, 2024

Rebecca (Becky) Diane Thieleman, born in Roswell, New Mexico on November 2, 1945 passed away on Wednesday, October 16, 2024 at 78 years old. Beloved wife and mother, preceded in death by her parents, John Anderson and Dorothea Walzel, her loving husband of 55 years, US Navy Veteran, Douglas Leon (Buddy) Thieleman (2024) and leaves behind her only child, Marty Gene Thieleman. Becky is survived by her sister, Karen Menchaca (Tom), Niece, Dana Zapalac (Keith); Brian, Beau & Austyn, Grandson, Donald Thieleman Jr. (Emily); Morgan and Thomas.

Becky attended Highlands High School. She loved to fish, hunt and travel. She learned at an early age to sew, crochet, draw and paint. She found joy in crocheting blankets and things for her family. She was a loyal employee at Alamo National Bank for over 2 decades and retired from FDIC as an Examiner after dedicating over 20 years of service.

Becky's family will always appreciate the fierce love she showed us. There wasn't anything she wouldn't do for us. She had a giving heart and although we will miss her greatly, we are at peace knowing she is reunited with the love of her life, Buddy.
