“ My beautiful Becky you were such an inspiration to me. We would talk everyday anytime of the day. You were a relative and a neighbor for 45 years. We would share a lot of moments with each other. You were like my baby sister. We would be there for each other thur happiness and sadness. We would talk about our kids and family. We truly miss you both we had such a great relationship. Always asking about your brother and how he was doing. If we needed something or not. We love you both and you are truly missed.

Becky was my cousin's aunt. She always had a smile. My mom and I would run into her often during our shopping sprees at South Park Mall. She was a wonderful, wonderful woman. Very reminiscent of the loving and kind hearted brother she had, Robert, Uncle Bobby Zuniga. I am deeply saddened by her passing. On behalf of the Moreno & Bustos families we extend our most deepest condolences to her family. May Becky Rest In Peace and May perpetual light shine upon her.
