

Rebecca Ann Charles

July 30, 1961 - October 21, 2019

Rebecca A. Charles known to many as “Becky” passed away October 21, 2019 in Houston, Texas surrounded by her family at the age of 58. She was diagnosed with cancer August 2018 and throughout her battle she never lost faith and continued to show her resilience. When she met people they’d always say “you’d never guess she was sick. Rebecca’s favorite quote was by John Wayne “Courage is being scared to death but saddling up anyway’ Rebecca was born July 30, 1961 in San Antonio, Texas. She was a Highlands High School graduate, Class of ’79. She later went on to earn her Bachelor Degree at the University of Incarnate Word. She worked as project manager with various companies for many years until she began her career with USAA as an insurance adjustor. In her free time she sold jewelry for Silpada and Grace & Heart as a brand representative. She quite often loved to go “antiquing”, attending events with her dog, Hazel, and spending time with her family and friends.

Rebecca will be missed most by anyone that had a chance to meet and spend time with her. She is preceded in death by her father, Leo G. Charles. She is survived by her mother, Carolina T. Charles; daughter, Diandra Avila and her husband Bobby Ramirez, son, AJ Avila; grandson, Sebastian; brothers, Eddie Zavala and his wife Ann, Robert Charles and his wife Elena as well as numerous aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and friends.

“ Becky and I were friends/ classmates although we lost touch after graduation our paths would continue to cross. Our boys played softball together for a couple of seasons and in the last few years again our paths crossed at church we would chat on our way to our vehicles and on a few occasions go and have dinner. It was always the same our friendship picked up as if we had not skipped a beat. Being around Becky was relaxing, fun and just easy cause she was genuine. To her family may you be carried through this journey by her love. Becky may you RIP my friend you will be missed.

“ Rebecca and I worked together for years at Lucifer Lighting. She was a sales rep and excelled and went beyond with her customer service. The clients loved her. She was always upbeat, poised and knowledgeable. She was well liked by everyone in the office. I remember when she bought her new home and proudly gave me a tour, both of us marveling at the nice detailing and workmanship. Her children meant everything to her and I felt like I knew them through her. She was ambitious and hard working, wanting to provide a good life for her and her family. And it wasn't easy being a single woman, working for a company where the men made a lot more and put half as much effort into their job. She was a loyal friend and a great office buddy. Though we lost touch when we both left Lucifer Lighting and I moved to Florida, I will always treasure the few years we had together and the laughs we shared. God bless you, Rebecca, and I look forward to us hooking up again in Heaven.

Becky was a first grade student of mine at Highland Hills Elementary School. I remember her as a very good child. Anxious to learn and please others. Friendly. Always smiling. We met again quite a few years later on Facebook. Becky has been my encourager these past four years. Always positive supporting me in being my hubby's caregiver. I treasure her prayers and messages of love. And my heart aches at her passing. But I know she will continue to watch over us. A true angel of God's.
