

Refugio A. Flores

July 5, 1937 - August 23, 2020

Refugio A. "Cuco" Flores passed away on August 23, 2020 in San Antonio, Texas. He was born on July 5, 1937 in San Antonio, to Rosario R. Flores and Maria Adrian Flores. Mr. Flores is survived by his loving wife of 62 years, Sarah Montez Flores; daughters: Patricia Botello (Michael), Sara Flores; sons: Refugio Carlos Flores (Judy), Pedro "Pete" Flores (Tina); sisters: Soledad Castellano, Anita Cheney (Mike); brothers: Nicolas Flores, Albert Flores (Olivia); grandchildren: Adrian Flores (Jessica), Charles Flores, Danielle Flores, Carrissa Flores, Garrett Flores, Brandi Wyatt-Gallet (Justin), David Ellis (Suzie), James Ellis; great-grandchildren: Mason Flores, Everly Flores, Bailey Wyatt-Gallet, Brooklyn Wyatt-Gallet, Sadie Ellis and Aaron Ellis, Christian Ellis, Grace Ellis, Taylor Ellis, and Brinnley Ellis.

He was an individual who worked hard and enjoyed life! A churchgoing man who doted on and was devoted to his family. He served as a Grand Knight for St. Jude Thaddeus, a Little League coach, coach for the McDonough Bros. Panthers, an instrumental coordinator for church festivals, and was the girls softball coach.

Cuco retired as the Purchasing Agent at McDonough Bros. and Martin Marietta after 45 years of service. Throughout his tenure he became friends with many vendors while working on such projects as Hemisfair. He had many lifelong friends from the plant.

His hobbies included: dancing, bowling, hunting, baseball, softball, and golf. He was fifteen when his dad gave him his accordion. If you know Cuco, he would always be ready to play if asked by the band. "El Rancho Grande" was one of many requests made by friends at the dances.

Cuco - a great husband, dad, Popo, great grandfather, brother, uncle, friend and compadre. A blessing to all whose lives he touched.
