“ So enjoyed seeing all the photos in the video. Jeannie was such a beautiful soul, she was always helping in some way. She could tell you like it was if you liked it or not.. Her and Sonny could go at it and make you laugh... Jeannie you will be missed so very much. There are no words that can express how hurt we are that you went to heaven so suddenly and way to soon. Rest in peace sweet girl, love you and you will ALWAYS be remembered.. Leave to to you to make sure of that! Love and hugs to all the family that hurts at this time, may there be comfort in knowing she is in the arms of her Mom and Dad now.

“ My condolences to Gary and the entire Williamson family. Jeannie was a wonderful person and great friend who would go above and beyond to help anyone in need. She was my maid of honor and I couldn't have done it without her. She introduced me to country music and took me to my first country concert Alabama and George Strait. She will be greatly missed but forever in my heart. Love you my friend, until we meet again.
