

Reymundo Solis

November 15, 1984 - July 1, 2023

Reymundo Solis, 38, entered his spiritual life on July 1, 2023. He was born November 12, 1984 in Danville, Illinois to his parents Vicente and Maria Guadalupe Solis. Rey grew up in Grulla/ Alto Bonito area of Starr County, Texas. He lived a few years in Bonners Ferry, Idaho, then Harlingen, Texas. However, most of his adult life was enjoyed in his favorite city, San Antonio, Texas.

Rey was an old soul. A very intuitive and spiritual person. He was extremely funny and had the energy to light up the room with laughter. Anyone who knew Rey knew of his incredible dancing skills. He used dance to bring joy unto others. Caring for the elderly was his passion. He made long lasting bonds with his residents. Most of all Rey was a very social, friendly person who was welcoming and endearing to people from all walks of life.

Reymundo was a beacon of light in everyone's life. He will be missed deeply by those who knew him. He leaves behind his father Vicente Solis and his wife Vicki Lynn Solis, mother Maria Guadalupe Solis and her husband Manuel Tenorio, his siblings; Elizabeth Solis and her husband Eleazar Solis Jr., Angelia Cordova, Isaac Cordova, and Jesus Lopez, and his nephews Eleazar "Eli" Solis III, and Israel Alonso Solis.

He is preceded in death by his grandparents, Israel Solis, Fidela Reyes Solis, Maria Olvera Rojo, Celestino Rojo, and his sibling Margaret Cordova.

You'll be in my heart. Until our next dance my beloved brother.

“ I'm so sad I never got one single picture with you, we had countless conversations since day one. You'd go in to tell me hi and bye at work or you'd walk in there telling me about someone talking shi and you were gonna go kick their as 😭 and I'd tell you " no fighting" !! I really never imagined that Thursday was going to be the last time I'd see your beautiful face. I was looking forward to more conversations and at least a pic...now all that's left are memories. My scorpio, I hope you're up there rejoicing and telling everyone about all wonderful people you have down here. I'll forever miss you
