Reyna married Hector G. Moreno on January 20, 1957 at Parroquia Del Sagrario in Monterrey, Mexico. They were married 43 years at the time of his death in 2000. They both worked at United Artists in Los Angeles, California where she worked in the office while her husband worked as a film courier. In order to make a better life for their growing family, they eventually moved all the way to San Antonio, Texas to open the doors of Moreno's Meat Market, an established business of over 38 years.

In 1968 our parents became proud legal citizens of the United States. And continued to make a better path for their children. Mrs. Moreno was a passionate business person and excelled in her endeavors. She was a woman ahead of her time. She deeply respected her catholic upbringing and you would find her most days in the process of completing a novena for someone she knew needed it.

After many years of work and little play, she was finally able to enjoy a little fun. Bingo was her passion, but when she found Vegas and found she could excel and win, this became known as her "therapy".

She will be buried in the Moreno family plot.
