

Reynaldo Benavides

October 28, 1947 - January 25, 2024

Reynaldo Benavides, 76, passed away peacefully with his family around him on January 25, 2024. Born on October 28, 1947, son to Elida Castillo and Reynaldo Benavidez and brother to Eva Klein, Diane Gomez, Linda Alvarez, Lucy Miranda and Jesse Castillo. Reynaldo lived a full and vibrant life from the beginning to the end and touched many people with his love and unfailing kindness along the way.

Reynaldo is survived by his wife; Christine Delamora; his loving children, Ruben Benavidez, Anthony Benavidez, Brenda Benavidez, Reynaldo Benavidez Jr., John Benavidez, Kathy Benavidez, Crystal Benavidez and his 16 grandchildren that loved him very much.

Reynaldo was a devoted father and an avid fisherman. He enjoyed plenty of coffee and working on vehicles with family. He lived life very freely and always had a positive disposition no matter the situation. His drives around town were legendary, stopping at each and every friend to greet them and offer his assistance. If anyone was stranded or required mechanic work, he offered his skills with no question and almost never charged. One of his favorite things to do was play the guitar and sing to his grandchildren who always seemed to gravitate to the sound of his voice. The family will cherish these memories of a Man who was like a Father to everyone. May God rest his soul.

“ Moving to San Antonio when I was 10 was not easy but my Uncle Ray made sure I was always taken care of. He helped me feel understood and encouraged my music and creativity. He made us laugh when we all needed it and was always there when we needed help the most.

When I was 12, I would hangout a few nights a week at his house after school with my cousins. One time I was outside playing with rocks while the rest of the boys played soccer. He had been doing work on a Ram Charger that belonged to a friend of his. I somehow knocked out one of the windows of the Ram with one of the rocks I had tossed. He never got mad, covered up for me, sorted it all out with the owner, and my mom never found out. He saved me.

I can't say I was ever there when he needed me but I hope in some way I was over the years. Rest in peace Uncle Ray. Hope whatever afterlife we get involves guitar and playing Wild Thing or Johnny Cash.

Love,
-Jackson McCoy

RIP: 🙏 My brother, Ray , you were a character. It was always a joy listening to your dreams, your adventures, looking to see what treasures you found hearing you talk about your dreams, and what had happened to you that week

*You were a man of many adventures You were a man that helped others You were a man that many people loved .
you were a man of great wisdom*

*A great father to my nieces and nephews, and a great uncle to us all always sharing what you had little or much. We will all miss you tremendously, but I know that our Lord has much for you to do .
continue to watch over us and throw down a little glimpse of glitter Until later see you*

Love ya❤️ My Big Brother
