“ I can still recall how happy Ray was to welcome his baby girl into the family. I will always remember you all as the most loving parents any child could have.

Manuel and I will keep you all in our prayers as you go through your time of grief and loss.

“ My sincere condolences to you all, I have had the pleasure of working with Rey for about 18 years, I was always the one who could never get the large plan xerox printer to work and would always call Rey to help me out. Rey always had a smile on his face
