

Reynaldo T. Diaz

May 12, 1980 - August 15, 2011

Reynaldo T. Diaz, age 31 beloved son, father, and friend was called home to be with the lord on August, 14, 2011 Ray is survived by his daughter, Phoenix Olivia Diaz, mother Irma Trevino Diaz, father Reynaldo Diaz, brother Jesus T. Diaz, sister Julie T. Diaz, wife Charity Nichols Diaz, best friend Adrian Robles, god daughter Lushey Oksana Robles and most beloved grandmother Manuela Diaz. As a young boy he loved to play basketball and tennis, ski, play in the woods and skateboard. God gave him a great wife and beautiful daughter. He loved to take his daughter to ride bikes, roller skate, or hike in the woods. He enjoyed life to the fullest and always put a smile on your face if you were upset, or sad. He was a goofy person always trying to pull a fast one! He could talk your ear off!

Services will be held Friday August 19, 2011 at noon

Liberty Baptist Church

7421 Marbach Rd

S.A., Texas 78227

Tribute Wall

RM

“*Rey,
How much I missed u since we were kids playing in the woods in Little Brook and swimming in the pool. Your parents always taking us to Canobie Lake to ride the Roller coasters over and over again until we were nauses. Sorry we didn't keep in touch a*

Ramon A Matias - October 09, 2012 at 12:00 AM

JC

“*Rey,
Miss you and the times we shared when i stayed with your family in San Antonio. You will be missed.*

Jessica Trevino Chavarria - September 02, 2011 at 12:00 AM

RA

“*Rey,as long as any of us that knew you exists, you will never be gone.
Your heart was of pure gold, I love you.
Ray*

Ray - August 29, 2011 at 12:00 AM

AN

“Rey, Sunday Mornings aren't the same without you! I know you are in a better place, but we will all miss you. I am grateful that i was able to get to know you in the last few months. I will keep your daughter and family in my prayers.

Angel - August 28, 2011 at 12:00 AM

EQ

“ Ray,

I am happy to have been able to have called you a friend. I'll miss our laughs and crazy conversations. I only wish I'd been able to get to know you better.

Eric Quesada - August 20, 2011 at 12:00 AM

JJ

“ Rey,

Everything I learned about you was through your friends or loved ones and hey, no one is perfect! BUT...the one thing I will remember the most about you was that Phoenix meant the world to you. She will miss you in the coming years so I will pray

Jacob Juarez - August 20, 2011 at 12:00 AM

TB

“ My heartfelt condolences are with Reys family. I was given the opportunity to work with Rey and will cherish memories and my time spent with such a special individual. Rey, you will be deeply and sincerely missed, your life and memory will not be forgotte

Tricia Bryand - August 20, 2011 at 12:00 AM

JH

“ Rey impacted the lives of many people in a very positive way and to lose someone like that is extremely hard. He made everyone he came in contact smile and a better person for knowing him. My heart will continue to poor out for all that loved him and God

John Hagl - August 19, 2011 at 12:00 AM

JH

“ Rey impacted the lives of many people in a very positive way and to lose someone like that is extremely hard. He made everyone he came in contact smile and a better person for knowing him. My heart will continue to pour out for all that loved him and God

John Hagl - August 19, 2011 at 12:00 AM

KS

“ Rey, I was lucky enough to work with you on your last day with Citi. Had I known that would be the last time I would ever see you, I would have thought of something better to say then “See ya Rey.” Now that it is approaching one week since I last saw you

Kelly Samperi - August 19, 2011 at 12:00 AM

KV

“ I am so saddened by the loss of Rey. He will be greatly missed in our lives at work. He was always smiling and laughing. As well as trying to make others laugh. I had only recently met Rey and talking to people he has known for awhile i know he will b

Kristi Villa - August 19, 2011 at 12:00 AM

JA

“ Rey was a good friend. He was someone who always laughed at my jokes and understood my humor. What I will miss most about him is hearing his laugh, seeing his smile, and our spirited conversations about music. God bless you and your family Rey! We know yo

Jachin - August 19, 2011 at 12:00 AM

CD

“ Rey,

We were co-workers and even though we did not know each other very well you were a person that was always smiling with a very quick wit and obviously loved to laugh. You were a lover of music and the arts. We will miss you here. My prayers are for

Charles Douglas - August 19, 2011 at 12:00 AM

MT

“ My sincere condolences. I did not know Rey other then to say hello as a co-worker who shared the same desk but I would like to share a secret. I also am a comic book fan and I read all of his comics. Speaking to his friends here at work I don't believe h

Mario Trevino - August 18, 2011 at 12:00 AM

AS

“ Rey, I wish I could have seen you one last time just to simply hello or goodbye. I am grateful to have known you. Thank you for always making me smile. I will never forget you. I am praying for peace, comfort, and strength in this difficult time for your

Annette Salinas - August 18, 2011 at 12:00 AM

AS

“ i am sorry for the loss of a great man and friend. Rey will always be in my thoughts and his family in my prayers

Antonio Sepulveda - August 18, 2011 at 12:00 AM