

Reynaldo M. Leos

August 9, 1938 - September 29, 2018

Reynaldo "Rey" M. Leos, was born in New Braunfels, Texas on August 9, 1938 to Isidoro Leos, Sr. and Concepcion Leos. His siblings included, Manuelita (deceased), Isidoro, Jr, Fernando and Guadalupe. Their family moved to San Antonio at an early age and Rey considered the Alamo City his home.

Growing up, he was always focused on his family and finding ways to help people. He started working as a 10-year-old with his brothers selling newspapers on Lackland AFB. This gave him a thirst for a hard work ethic and the importance of finances. After attending Fox Tech High School and being a leader in the R.O.T.C. program, Rey started his banking career at Alamo National Bank.

He turned this job into a 50+ year career in the financial industry. Working during an era where handshakes and "your word" would be good enough for a loan. He met his wife, Margie at his brother's wedding and was married less than a year later on July 29, 1967. The two of them recently celebrated 51 years of marriage together.

They had three sons, Edward, John and Daniel. Additionally, he loved each of his grandchildren and the gifts that made each of them unique. Garrett, Kendall, Lauren, Gabi, Lexi, Ari and Alina always brought a smile to his face every time he saw them.

Rey was an avid New York Yankees fan - having gotten his love for the Bronx Bombers from his father at an early age. That love for New York carried over to his sons and grandchildren. Additionally, he reveled in the Chicago Bears and was at his happiest when they won. However, if they happened to lose, you knew he would be outside cutting his grass and working on the yard. For anyone who knew him well, he took great pride in his yard and making sure it was one of the sharpest in the neighborhood.

Finally, he was a man that would do anything for you. His legacy will live on in each of us.
