

Ricardo Monarez

December 1, 1993 - September 1, 2016

Our beloved son, grandson, father, nephew, cousin and friend was called home to heaven at the young age of 22 on Thursday September 1, 2016. Ricardo Monarez was born in El Paso, Texas, an only child to Mizeny and Jose Romo. Ricardo was a great Husband, Father, Son, Grandson, Cousin, Nephew and Friend. He made everyone laugh and smile with his charisma. He was such a loyal, loving, strong and vibrant person, his family and friends meant the world to him. Ricky never judged you or tried to change you, he listened and loved you in every way he could. He was braver than most and had a heart of gold. The love for his daughters could fill the sea. Though he might not be with them physically, he will be there spiritually to guide them and watch them grow.

Ricky is preceded in death by his great grandparents.

Ricky is survived by his Wife Kristin, his two beautiful daughters Alexis and Aliyah, his parents Mizeny and Jose Romo, maternal grandparents Victor and Estella Velasco, Aunt Celia Dominguez Orlando, Uncle Victor Velasco Cynthia, Uncle Jerry Romo, Cousins Alexis, Nadine, Anthony, Victoria, Vincent and Victor Jr.

"When I go let me go, don't care for me with tears.
Through the beautiful years we spent together, give thanks to God.
If you must cry, let your faith in God comfort your grief.
Life goes on, and I will be near.
You will feel the warmth of my love in your hearts.
And when you have to travel on this road with God, I will receive you with a smile and tell you:
Welcome! We will never again be apart.
