

Ricardo Ortiz Morquecho

February 10, 1994 - October 27, 2024

Ricardo Ortiz Morquecho was born on February 10, 1994, in Saltillo, Mexico, to Ricardo Ortiz Puente and Dina Morquecho. He passed away on October 27, 2024. Rico is preceded in passing by his grandparents, Maria Morquecho and Jose Morquecho. He is survived by his loving wife of 6 years, Amanda Mata, his children, Juliet, Ricardo Jr., and Royce, his parents, his grandparents, Ricardo Ortiz Sr., and Maria Ortiz Puente, his sisters, Nuvia Ortiz Morquecho, and Diana Ortiz Morquecho, as well as his nephew Mateo Alvarez. Ricardo was a hard worker going into construction after high school, he loved his job with GMI, always proud of the buildings he helped create. He was very family oriented, always spending time with his loved ones, having bbqs, he loved his elote and carne asadas. He loved going to the river and being outdoors showing his boys new things. He loved his pups where he cared for them, breed them, and attended shows, he was so proud when he bought his first bullie Elemento and from there on out every dog he owned was apart of SouthTownKennels. He had a passion for his old school cars and trucks, he loved his Bronco and RAM. He always made everyone laugh and was the life of the party. He was a good friend, amazing father, and loving husband that will be dearly missed.
