“ My most recent memory was when Gabriel brought Richard to our class reunion as his date. We laughed all night about it and made comments on how they needed to go out dancing more often. Very fond memories of band football game and competitions.

“ He was one of the funniest Men I knew! He always kept us laughing while volunteering for ECJROTC Parent Booster. He was a parent we could always depend on when we needed a helping hand.

“ Great memories of Richard when my kids were young. He would ring them donuts and chocolate milk mostly on Fridays. My fondest memory was when Eddie would say, "Uncle, make my hole" and Richard would cross his legs for Eddie to sit and watch TV. Richard and Rosa were always kind to my kids and for that, I am grateful. You are with our Lord Jesus and free of pain and sorrow. Til we meet again. Love,
Yolanda

Tio Richard was so quick with a joke at any time! When we were little we were easy targets... He caught me "adjusting" my underwear from behind and asked "Are you going to the movies, mija?" I said "No, why?" He said, "Because you're already picking your seat! "... Always funny. Always there for us. Walked me down the aisle for my wedding ,since my Dad had already passed. Always present at important events for me. ❤️
