If this is the Richard I knew when I was at Brack back in the late 60's then he's the right Richard. He played saxophone in the school band and later he was with the group called First Light. We used to hang out with the same crowd he was a Senior and I was a Sophomore. I remember him being a big man even in the 80's. There's some pictures in my Brack yearbooks of Richard. I'm so sorry to read that he as passed and my condolences to his family. Rest In Peace, Richard. I also read on Facebook that Victor Castillo QB at Brack who played on the 62 squad that won the state championship. His services were held this past Saturday. To many friends and people I've known are gone. Bummer!

“I first met Richard García in 1967 when I moved to San Antonio from Dallas to play with the Sunglows with Joe Bravo. We were both young but Richard was so talented on his trumpet. I moved back to Dallas and eventually joined the USAF Band and returned to San Antonio in 1982. I looked for Richard and finally caught up to him in 1988. He turned out to be especially talented on the saxophone listening to him with First Light. My remembrance of Richard was he was always a gentleman and professional at his craft. He turned out just fine. Rest In Peace old friend. May God keep you in His ever living Grace. 🙏🙏🙏

“ *I offer my sincere heartfelt condolences to the Garcia family during this difficult loss.. Richard was a huge influence on me musically and also as a family man... He taught me that family was the most important thing in life and that everything else was secondary... I will also treasure our man to man talks about life and music as I was my starting my own life with my own little family... Richard, Martha and their two sons always treated me as family and I will never forget how much love I saw between all of them... True inspiration indeed! “ With heavy hearts, San Antonio City has lost a bigger than life friend of gifted humanitarian. He loved his God, he loved his wife, he loved his children, he loved his family, he loved his friends, he loved his fans, he loved his city, he loved his strangers, he loved his work and he loved his music. He was servant of all life.

We nicknamed him, "Richard the Hulk"... Giant of life's journeys.

Martha, children and family, we join you in celebrating the love of your life, husband, father, grandfather, son, brother, uncle, patrino and friend that each of you unselfishly shared with us.

Our condolences are with you and our prayers is God's healing for comfort and peace, to unite one day again.

“ Richard was a big part of my work family at Bexar Co. Juvenile he shared his wisdom daily in the office and made his staff feel consistently a part of his family life. Over the years we've shared may a cold beverage, work story and more than a few get togethers to listen to him play with his band. Often we would sit with his loving wife Martha and usually his son's would be around or would be by his side playing their instruments as well. It always felt great to be a part of his work family but he also shared his personal life / family with us. He always shared his thoughts with you and gave you his honest opinion. It was an honor to work with him and he will be missed. My thoughts are with his wife Martha and his sons Richard and Anthony. Thank you so much for sharing your Husband / Dad with me over the years. Rest in Peace Rich.

San Antonio has lost another one of its treasures. Richard Garcia left this plane of existence on October 15, 2020.

He was a pioneer of the San Antonio Chicano AND Jazz scenes. He played one hell of a trumpet early on in his career, then decided to make the switch to saxophone and flute (with effortless mastery!). He was a key member of such bands as The Royal Jesters and Monsanto, then led his own jazz group First Light. He was a Musician's Musician.

In addition to his many musical accolades, he served as the Internship Director of the Bexar County Juvenile Probation Department, helping numerous San Antonio youth earn a second chance at life.

Above all, he was a devoted husband and family man.

He was my musical uncle. He was my mentor. He was one of my toughest critics. He taught me a lot about music. He taught me a lot about life. He gave this young upstart a chance to learn how to play, and in the process, I walked away learning so much more.

My condolences go out to Martha and his two sons, Richard and Anthony, and the rest of the Garcia family.

I know he is not suffering any more, but it doesn't lessen the heartache. I'm completely heartbroken.

I love you, Richard. Until we meet again. May you Rest in Peace.

Love,

The Critter (Adrian Ruiz)
