“ I have so many beautiful memories of my favorite cousin Richard. He was such a special man. I never saw him angry or say anything against anyone. I remember my Tio's bring him n Irene to our home to introduce Irene to my parents before they married. Irene was a beautiful young lady (looked like Jackie K.). Attending their beautiful wedding. We became closer as the years went by. I would call him and when he answered I'd say (hi handsome) and he would laugh. We shared so much I'd always let him take charge of our conversations because he had so much family history. Sometimes we laughed like two kids at what he would share. One thing that touched my heart was when he shared. As a newspaper boy he had gone to collect for the paper at this home. He said that he stood at this front door n he was so impressed by the lovely door that he asked God. Please give me a door like this someday. He said that God not only gave him the door but gave him the house as well. I can almost see my cousin's face when he was told, (come my good n faithful servant).
I last saw my cousin at my husband's funeral. I will miss Richard all the days of my life.
Irene, you are going to make it through this difficult time. God is faithful and loyal, He will be with you through your darkest times.
Love, hugs and prayers always, Alice Garza Jimenez
