

Richard Thomas Hansel II

April 22, 1967 - May 20, 2026

Richard Thomas Hansel II, 59, of San Antonio, passed away peacefully surrounded by the love of his family. He was born at Nix Hospital in San Antonio, Texas, and lived a life rooted in hard work, dedication, and devotion to those he loved most. Richard is survived by his beloved wife, Yvonne Hansel; children, Richard Hansel III and Stephanie Hansel and husband (Sean Luna), grandchildren Rocky Luna and Tommy Luna; mother Celestina Hansel and sister Laura Hansel. He also leaves behind numerous nieces, nephews, extended family members, and dear friends who will cherish his memory forever.

Richard attended McCollum High School and graduated in 1985. He dedicated his career to Allied Fire Protection, where he worked as a highly respected Level IV Fire Alarm Designer. Richard took great pride in his work and was known for his knowledge, strong work ethic, and commitment to protecting others through his profession. In his free time, Richard enjoyed fishing, hunting and spending time outdoors. He found his greatest joy in making memories with those he loved and sharing laughter, stories, and adventures together.

Richard will be remembered for his caring heart, his dedication to his family, and the lasting impact he made on everyone who knew him. His memory will forever live on in the hearts of all who loved him.
