

Richard Earl Larson

August 26, 1940 - October 12, 2022

Richard Earl Larson of San Antonio passed away on Wednesday, October 12th, 2022. He was born August 26, 1940, in Billings, Montana, the son of Hermina Willis and served in the United States Air Force for 22 years. He attained the rank of Senior Master Sergeant and Chief Select. On August 29, 1959, while stationed at Grand Forks Air Force Base in North Dakota, he married his greatest source of joy in life, his wife of 53 years, Myrna LaRayne Whaley. Upon his retirement from the USAF at Offutt AFB, Omaha Nebraska in 1980, Richard and Myrna returned to San Antonio with their daughters and enjoyed a full life, a second career at Coors Distribution, family gatherings and time with their grandchildren. Richard is preceded in death by his wife Myrna, sister Shirley Lee and her husband Bill, and his grandson, Zachary Miller. He is survived by his daughters Wanda Miller (Tim) of Omaha, Nebraska, Michelle Liu (John) of San Antonio and grandchildren Jacob Miller, Kasie and Evan Liu, many nieces and nephews, friends, and his caregivers Nelly, Rosa & Beto.

The family asks that those who desire to do so may make memorial contributions in his honor to Beitel Memorial Lutheran Church, San Antonio, Texas.
