

Richard (Ricky) Wayne Reddout

February 24, 1965 - January 25, 2025

Richard (Ricky) Wayne Reddout, a true believer in Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior, heard the words, “Welcome home thy good and faithful servant” on January 25, 2025. Ricky was a loving husband, devoted dad, Pa, son, brother and friend.

He was born on February 24, 1965, in San Antonio, TX. to Donald and Nancy Reddout. Ricky graduated from John Marshall High School in 1983 and worked with his dad and brothers in their family-owned construction business for many years.

Ricky married his wife, Catherine (Katie) on June 13, 1987, and spent 37 years together. Their love story started at the early age of 13 when they met in junior high. They have two children, Tallon and Cassidy, their spouses Sonia and Jake, and two precious granddaughters, Mia Alexandra and Ella Charlotte. He was devoted to his family and friends and enjoyed spending as much time with them as possible. He believed in daily devotion to his Lord and would spend several hours every morning reading scripture so he would be ready to tell others about salvation and how to know you would spend eternity in heaven, his desire for everyone he met. He never met a stranger he couldn't befriend or a story he couldn't tell you 10 different ways.

Ricky is predeceased by his grandparents, Clyde and Vivian Reddout, TJ and Bessie Baker and his in-laws, John and Jackie Gilbert. He is survived by his wife, Katie, children, Tallon, Sonia, Cassidy, and Jake, granddaughters Mia and Ella, his brothers, Ronnie (DiAnn), Shane (Valerie), nieces and nephews,

Kayla L., Kayla K., Sam, Josiah, Elijah, great nieces and nephew, Jacksyn, Wyatt, Bryson and cousins, Robbin (Arthur) Townsend, Becky (Spanky) Witt, Jess (Tammy) Walters and Geno (Crystal) Walters as well as many other cousins, and life long friends Russell, Carl, Jody and Tony, friends Rick and Janet and his church family.

“ Dear Katie,
I as so saddened to hear of Ricky's homegoing. No words can help the hurt, but I want you to know that others do care and grieve with you. You aren't alone , tho at times it will feel like it. The Lord is with you, holding you up when you feel that way. Cling to him and to your memories of Ricky. That has seen me through some difficult days. If I can be of help in anyway please reach out to me. Keeping you and yours in prayer for sweet peace that only God can give. Love you,

“ What a privilege to have had Ricky as our friend. He was a godly husband and father and truly had great faith. He dedicated himself to drawing closer to God every day and wanted all he met to have a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. Our lives are the better for knowing him - as is the case for all who knew him. Memories of times spent together will continue to bring joy and peace but you are and will be sorely missed. We will meet again in heaven's glory (Titus 2:13). Praying for your family and those left behind.

“ Katie,
I am so sorry for your loss, I know you and Ricky shared a great love by the many stories you told. I never had the privilege of meeting him, but I learned a lot about him. I learned he was a God-Fearing man, with a kind heart, who would extend a helping hand to all who needed it. I also learned that he worked hard everyday not just serving the Lord, but by doing all he could physically. I learned that he was very proud of Tallon and Cassidy and that Mia and Ella brought him so much joy. The one thing I learned faster than all of that, was how much he loved his wife, and how much he admired you for all you are. May God give you peace when you miss him, think at that moment that he is in a beautiful place where he is resting. May all the great memories cause your heart to smile.
