“ Rick was a good friend, a good neighbor and an all around good person. I remember him being friendly towards anyone who would stop and listen. He would give you the shirt off his back and he would back you up in any situation. May he rest in peace and may the lord comfort his soul. He's in a special place at the right hand of our lord, basking in the glory and no longer in pain. We'll miss you my friend. Luke 15:31-32, saying: "And he [the father] said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours. It was fitting to celebrate and be glad, for this your brother was dead, and is alive; he was lost, and is found."
