“ Tio Richard will be missed. He was a man who loved his family and was always welcoming. There was a time when we went to go visit and we got on the subject of tattoos. I told him i wanted another tattoo and he said "what for, you dont need any more tattoos, if i being a Navy Man don't have tattoos, you dont need either". I told him "Tio, its too late, i already have some"..he rolled his eyes and shook his head. Love you Tio

“ Fred and I are saddened that our Friend, Rick, has been called by God to reside for eternity in heaven. In the many years that The Salazar Family was our neighbors we enjoyed many days visiting and enjoying their company.
Rick was always ready to help. I am especially grateful for his help when Fred developed complications after his knee surgeries. He was ready to do whatever needed to be done to help. He was a Good Husband, Father, Grandfather.... We are proud to call him Friend. He has been freed of his earthly pain and is in The Glorious Presence Of Our Lord And Savior where he will be reunited with his loved ones.
Hasta Luego Amigo. Fred & Laura
