

Richard Allen Smith

August 1, 1956 - September 7, 2022

Richard Allen Smith was born on August 1, 1956 in Corpus Christi, Texas and passed away at the age of 66 on September 7, 2022 in San Antonio, Texas. Richard considered himself a 'simple man', as described by the Lynyrd Skynyrd song of the same name, and certainly lived his life with that in mind. He loved his family with all his heart, was a very attentive and loving father, enjoyed the activities and numerous hobbies in life that left him satisfied, and always gave the advice to listen to your heart and let it guide your path in life. He was skilled in several trade crafts, always enjoying working with his hands, was a deep thinker who enjoyed lively discussions, stimulating debates, and learning about scientific and technical discoveries.

Richard is survived by his loving wife whom he adored, Barbara Packham; siblings Ray Moses and Joyce Johnson; children Megan House and Richard Smith Jr., stepdaughters Tracy Gordon Maki and Kelly Stillman and the joys of his life, his grandchildren Claire Smith, Jackson House, Zachary Maki, Mattison Maki, Izabella Stillman, Kennedy Stillman and great-grandchild Georgie Mae Akins.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Susie Moses and Robert Smith and his stepfather Dennis Moses.

A celebration of life will be held Sunday, September 18, 2022 at 9 a.m. at the Mission Park Funeral Chapels Cherry Ridge, 3401 Cherry Ridge Dr, San Antonio, TX 78230. Thereafter or in lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to San Antonio Food Bank.
