STEWART

It's with a heavy heart that we say goodbye to Richard L. Stewart Jr. who passed from this world on Oct. 2nd, 2013 at the age of 41. Richard filled the lives of others with kindness, hope, joy, and love. He was very special.

Richard was the life of the party who could fill any room with laughter. Richard loved music, he played the guitar, wrote songs and sang. He was loyal to his country and proudly served in the U.S. Army, U.S. Army Reserve and Texas National Guard. As a nurse he impacted the lives of countless patients that he cared for with compassion and grace. What he cherished above all was his family. He leaves behind his soul-mate and the love of his life, his wife Melony, three sons Grayson, Colin, little Anthony, and one daddy's girl Sophia. They are his legacy and were the joy of his life whom he loved with everything he had. They brought meaning to his life and he was oh so proud of them all.
