“ Rick was my coworker & more important my friend at UPS. We both usually got to work early & he greeted me every morning by shouting my name, “Pablo!”

Monday morning 08/27 began with both of us talking about the ridiculous amount of work we had for the day. Rick never complained, he would just laugh, smile & do it.

Monday night ended the same way. Rick & I pulled back into the hub late. We talked & he laughed & smiled, which is amazing, having just worked around 11 hours.

I didn't know that would be the last time I would see him. Mornings just aren't same anymore.

My sincere condolences to the Ortiz family.

“ Many prayers to your family and to all that knew Rick. He was a character. Always laughing and smiling. He would get mad at me because every time he laughed I would tell him " open your eyes "... You will be missed my friend. God Bless you and your family. Continued prayers and condolences. Ruby Estrada.
