“ A funny story about the narrow ramp on the porch at Superior Pontiac/GMC was when I was new and stressed about going up the ramp he told me “don’t do like I did. I brought a truck up there and ripped their heads off and it was so tight I just closed my eyes and floored it and hit the wall..he was laughing and told me he can laugh now so he said he can’t be worse than that..I called a porter to move it.

“ You were the best son I could ever have, you made me laugh a lot ,cry sometimes too. 😊 You encourage your mum to never give up when hard times come. I loved you deeply and you have left a big hole in my life. I know you loved our Savior, and the importance of God in our lives. I know you have a new, painless body now and we will be together again when God calls me home. Miss and love you most.

“ We may not have been close in miles these last few decades but you were always near to my heart. If there is an afterlife, hug both our fathers that we have missed so badly for so long. Sleep sound Cousin Ricky x
