“ I am soooo missing you my son. Everyday I still hope to hear your voice or wish that you would call me...just to say "Hi Mama" as you always did. I sit here and recall what you were like when you were small and how you grew up to be such a handsome young man. You were always full of spirit and ideas and I wish you had more time to fulfill those. I miss your cooking, your peach cobbler was awesome. I wish we had more time. I love you to the moon and back a thousand times over and I wish you were here so that I can just hug you like I did when you were a baby. You are now in God's hands. You are now comforted and are out of pain. Your face, you laugh, you humor, your love is all engraved in my heart forever. I will NEVER stop missing you.

Love,
Mama

“ Brother, I miss you so much. Our conversations, our time making great food, the music and your laugh. I find solace that you are with Dad, Grandma, Grandpa, Josh, Uncle Johnny, Phil and everyone you loved sitting at the big table hanging out, sharing stories and smiling down on us. See you on the other side.

Love,
Marty
