“ *I have loved and admired Robbie starting when I first met her at Manor Baptist Church years ago. When I joined Woodland Baptist Church, I was so thrilled to see Robbie singing in the choir. I will never forget how emotional i got every time I heard her sing "His Eyes are on the Sparrow." To this day, I can still hear her sweet voice singing that beautiful song. I cherish the memories! “ I am flooded with beautiful memories of this beautiful lady. She was my rock when I became minister of music at Beacon Hill Baptist Church and I relied on her to sing many touching solos plus I was privileged to sing many duets with her. She and Jim - along with Vela and Rob Adair - became my lifelong friends during the time at Beacon Hill, and I have never stopped loving Robbie and appreciating her great talents which she used throughout her life to benefit others. My sincere love and sympathy to especially Jim, Jamye and Kristy, as well as to the grands and great-grands. What a great legacy Robbie leaves you. Ken Floyd
