“ I will not consider him dead in spirit because he lived around me as a loving living spirit. He was RJ Banks to family with the Peels as family. I hope his sons are managing his physical body unable to sustain itself yet his spirit remains alive. I am from Naples, Texas where as a little girl yall lived across from Cousin Mack and Margie B.Rayford and your brother I hope all is going smoothly with you. My name is Iris Lanese Boyd. Tell your mother I said she is still photogenic.

“ I am saddened to hear of Uncle Bob's passing. His wife was my babysitter (big understatement the value Mrs Banks and her sister are to me) during the early 80s and their youngest son, Reggie, was my best friend.

“ I was very sadden to hear from "Aunt Jean" of the passing of Bob who I thought of as "Uncle Bob" because of the long friendship he shared with my Dad, Lewis Bandy as they worked together for many, many years. Even after both retired, daily phone calls were had to check on each other. I loved to sit and listen to their stories of their hijinx and pranks they would pull on coworkers as well as each other. Now these friends can meet up again and sit with the Lord as he has two God fearing men who have come home and they can reminisce. I pray for peace and comfort to you Jean and all of your family.

God Bless.
