“ Sorry to hear about Bob. He and I worked together many years ago at a health club in San Antonio. He was a friendly and family oriented person, and was always available to help others. I can still hear that New York accent of his and will miss him.

“ My condolences to the Walsh Family. May God bless you in this time of need. I knew Bob for about 10 years. He was our electrician contractor in my past life at Intertek in Elmendorf, TX. I was sad to hear when he passed, as well as his master electrician Butch one day before. Bob was a great guy. I will surely miss him. Thank you Bob for all your help and support over the years. You were the best. Thanks for letting me get to know you and your two sons. God bless!

“ I've known Bob for a little over 14 years, he recruited me to work for him one day when I ran into him at a Home Depot. We had been working on a house at the same time I was doing some carpentry work and he was doing the electrical, he said he liked how I worked and he offered me a job at his company. I took him up on his offer and that was the best decision I made, Bob was a great boss and a good friend he always treated us good, always offered a lending hand when any of us had a problem, he taught me a lot about electrical and I am grateful for that, Bob was an awesome person all around he treated my boys like his own always encouraged them, helped them in anyway he could, I 've never met a guy like him and never had a boss like him we will miss him tremendously, Our thoughts and prayers are with you Ida, William and Patrick you guys were blessed with a an amazing person thank you for sharing him, Rest In Peace Boss thank you for all that you did for me and my family we will forever be grateful.

“ Bob and my husband, Naji Kayruz, taught young boys Judo at Alamo Judo 20 years ago. Bob was there for me and my son when my Naji was killed in 2019. I'll never forget the tears in his eyes at my husbands services. My son and I cry for the loss of two beautiful lives now...Bob and Naji. We cry also for the silent suffering that comes from such a great loss. It's so difficult to go through life without your father and husband. Please extend a million kindnesses to his family, now and for the years to come. Even if you stop seeing the tears running down their faces, know that they will still cry inside for the simplest reasons that remind them of Bob. May God hold you and your boys, Ida. I will pray for Bob, you and your boys. Bob always spoke so lovingly about you and was so proud of his sons. My sincerest condolences.

“ I only had the privilege of seeing Bob a few times a year, over that last several years, through mutual friends. Even though my encounters with him were brief, it was evident that he lived his life with complete, unrelenting devotion, to his family, his friends, and his faith. The space he filled in many people's hearts will never be replaced, but will always serve as a reminder to try and live our lives just a little bit more like Bob.

“ Ida, William, and Patrick,

Darin and I were heartbroken to hear about Bob. Y'all have been the kindest neighbors to my parents. Your whole family is the epitome of the hands and feet of Jesus. We are sending up many prayers as your family goes through this difficult time. Hold on to each other. The memories will eventually become more sweet than bitter. Hugs to your whole family.
