

Robert M. Gomez

September 30, 1921 - October 31, 2010

GOMEZ

Robert M. "Bob" Gomez passed away on October 31, 2010 at the age of 89, after a long illness. He was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Mary Alice. Mr. Gomez is survived by his daughter Kathleen Gomez Grandfield, his two grandchildren, Ryan Jones and Courtney Jimenez, and six great-grandchildren. He also leaves behind many loving nieces, nephews and other family members. He was born in San Antonio, September 30, 1921, after his parents had relocated here from Havana, Cuba. Bob Gomez served valiantly during World War II in North Africa and Corsica. He survived more than three years of service in areas that were often bombed and shelled, attacks that left him with multiple concussions, and what we now call TBI. In spite of these traumas, Mr. Gomez went on to become a successful salesman and businessman in his hometown. Always a dedicated family man, he not only provided love and care to his wife and daughter, but to other members of his extended family as well. When his sister lost her husband in the Bermuda Triangle, Bob Gomez was there to help her in raising her seven children. Through his membership in The Knights of Columbus, The Optimists, and other organizations he gave back to the community at large. In spite of the gradually worsening of his neurological problems over the years, Mr. Gomez always had a warm welcome and a kind word for his many friends and family members. Men like Bob Gomez are the truly great men who make our world a better place.
