October 5, 1979 - January 10, 2025

In Loving Memory of Robert Jason Ibarra

It is with deep sadness that we announce the passing of Robert Jason Ibarra, who left us on January 10, 2025 at the age of 45. He is survived by his wife Valerie Ibarra; parents Robert and Gloria Tristan Ibarra; daughter, Kayla Michelle Ibarra and grandson, Abraham. He is reunited with his younger brother Marcus Anthony Ibarra and several loved ones gone before him.

A beloved husband, son, father, brother, grandfather, and friend, Jason was known for his humor, kind heart, and unshakable love for his family.

Born to Robert and Gloria Tristan Ibarra, Jason grew up with a deep appreciation for family values, which he carried throughout his life. He was the proud father of Kayla Michelle Ibarra and the loving grandfather to his cherished grandson, Abraham. Jason found joy in making others laugh, always lightening the mood with a joke or a humorous story. His laughter was contagious, and his presence brought warmth to everyone around him.

Though he often presented himself as macho, those who knew him best saw the gentle, compassionate man beneath the surface. He had a remarkable ability to open his heart, showing kindness and love to everyone in his life. In joining the SATC truck club after purchasing his dream truck, a bright red 2011 Toyota Tundra he named TABASCO, he made many lasting friendships. A sense of belonging and adventure changed his life.

Jason leaves behind a legacy of love, laughter, and unforgettable memories. His spirit will live on in the hearts of all who had the privilege of knowing him.

He will be deeply missed but never forgotten.

“ My condolences to his Mother, father, daughter and grandson. I went to school with Jason. I remember he would drive that Camaro of his every morning to pick me and another friend up for school. I enjoyed the ride because we would listen to music on the way to school. Jason turned me on to the Fugees. I specifically remember him telling me that his mom really liked the “Killing me softly” remake they did. We’d jam out to the Fugees and Type O Negatives “ Summer Breeze” remake which sounded awesome on full blast in that Camaro lol. Jason was really quick witted. We’d cut up and laugh all the time. He was always really kind and just a generally good dude. I’ll miss him. The last time I saw Jason was when he, my girlfriend Violeta and I, went to see Metallica play in like 2017 or 2018. It was cool to see that band, as their music was on constant rotation on those rides to school as well. Jason it’s sad that you’re gone, but I know you’re with your little brother now, catching up. See ya when we get there brother. Thank you for the fond memories. Your friend, Matthew S.

*Matthew,
Loved reading your post. I remember when he went to that concert and, yes, I loved that song he told you about. Oh, and that was my Camaro that I bought brand new in 1985 and I saved it for him. He loved that car! Thank you for being such a great friend to him. I know he knew a lot of people, but I'm overwhelmed with the posts on social media of so many friends he had plus co-workers. Jason and I were so connected. He was not only my son, but he was also my soulmate. We'd finish each other's sentences, would be calling or texting and our calls/messages would cross each other, or we'd want to eat the same thing or go to the same restaurant. We had an amazing connection. My heart has another huge hole in it. Both our sons are now with God. It's an immense pain!!*
