

Robert James Janavaras Jr.

June 7, 1986 - January 24, 2025

Robert James Janavaras Jr. born on June 7, 1986 to Robert and Jeanie Janavaras .Robert or RJ as he was known by his family. At the very young age of 8 during an evening service at church insisted on speaking to his Pastor, John Hagee and would not leave until he went to his office where he sat on his lap and accepted Jesus as his Lord and Savior. This would explain his love for old songs of the church. RJ loved many things in life but he loved his children above all. He cherished everything about them and made sure he saved everything from diapers, pictures, letters, toys, clothes and baby furniture. His passion for music had no boundaries. He loved everything from Randy Travis to Tupac and his favorite church group Exaltation. He loved sketching, barbecuing for the family and repairing automobiles.

RJ was always ready to help anyone. He couldn't pass up strangers stranded on the side of the road or in a parking lot. He truly had a servants heart. His presence will surely be missed by his family and friends but knowing now he is at peace in the arms of his Lord and Savior Jesus

Christ gives all who loved him comfort.
