

Robert P. Maldonado, Jr.

July 22, 1947 - December 14, 2022

Robert P. Maldonado, Jr. entered eternal rest on December 14, 2022, at the age of 75. He was born on July 22, 1947 in Corpus Christi, Texas to Robert, Sr. and Juanita (Bazan) Maldonado.

He is preceded in death by his parents. Robert is survived by his loving wife of over 20 years, Delia Martinez Maldonado; sons, Robert Maldonado and Stephen Maldonado (Maria Elena); sisters, Mary Lou (Felix) Soliz and Anna Maldonado; brother, Mike (Vickie) Maldonado; granddaughter, Charlotte Maldonado; other loving family members and friends.

Robert graduated from W. B. Ray High School in Corpus Christi and after high school joined the United States Army. He served four years in the Army and fought in the Vietnam war. After the Army, he attended Del Mar College and received his Associates of Arts degree. Robert was then employed by Southwestern Bell for over 30 years.

Robert was active with his local VFW Post #1533; he was their Quartermaster and spent numerous years there. Robert had a big heart and loved spending time with his wife, granddaughter, and family. Robert loved to travel and enjoyed watching the Dallas Cowboys and San Antonio Spurs. He would also love to watch classic westerns and James Bond movies.

“ Robert was one of the first friends I made at SW Bell, when I move to Corpus Christi from N.J. in 1980. We stayed in touch all these years. I have fond memories of him teaching me how to order in TexMex when we went to lunch at all of his favorite Mom & Pop cafes. I will miss talking to him. Rest in Peace my friend. J.M.Kayes
