The family of George L. Garcia sends its deepest condolences to the Rodriguez family. Robert and I played a lot of Golf together. He was a good friend and we enjoyed each others company. I am going to miss his jokes. He would tell me that he had gone to the casino and I would reply to him that I had the wheelbarrow and my gun ready to go pickup the money he won. He would reply to me that he lost and that the Indians had scalped him. Partner rest in peace.
