

Robert John Stolt Sr.

September 5, 1945 - January 31, 2012

STOLT SR.

Robert J. "Bob" Stolt, 66, died on January 31, 2012 and went in the arms of his Lord. He was surrounded by his family, friends, loyal hospice team and loyal dachshund "Handsome". His beloved daughter Elizabeth was at his side throughout. Bob was born Sept 5, 1945 to the late William "Bill" Stolt and Florence Coffman Stolt. Bob was a U.S. Marine Corps Sergeant and combat veteran in Vietnam and later enlisted in the U.S. Air Force, retiring as a Master Sergeant in February 1986. During his career, he had 13 assignments throughout the United States, Europe and Asia. Bob was also a member of the American Legion Post 336. Bob was an avid hunter and fisherman and renowned mesquite BBQ cook and NASCAR fan. He was preceded in death by his parents and survived by children, Robert J. Stolt Jr. and wife Lori and grandson Jacob of Austin; Harlen D. Stolt of Colorado Springs, Colo; and daughter Elizabeth D. "Punkin" Stolt of San Antonio. He is also survived by his sister Sandra and her husband, the Rev. Charles Wertz of Harborcreek, nephew David and wife Anita Wertz, niece Kelly and husband Terry Shrout and his dear friend Sylvia Belovoskey of San Antonio, also lifelong friends, George Sell and the late Larry Corey of Harborcreek, the brothers he never had. Also his classmate Barb Garner and cousin Pam of Pennsylvania. The family wishes to thank Bob's many friends who were there for him during the latter stages of his battle with heart and lung disease, especially Mary Baker, James Wright, Dickie, Tony and Dom Cordonita of San Antonio. Not to be forgotten, his adoptive son Lewie Carmen Losoya and their family whose loyalty and devotion never waived during the most challenging of times. They also wish to thank the wonderful people of Hospice Compassus, "Angels" Gloria, Helen, Karen and Michele. Casual clothes are encouraged for the service and in lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Disabled American Veterans or to any non-political organization that feeds the world's hungry.
