“ Loretta, while growing up, your Aunt Tilliemy grandmother kept us apart. However, that was only in body and not spirit.

You are hurting now but Bob is right beside you---just reach out and he'll guide you. I never had the distinct pleasure of meeting or “ *Im sorry to hear that Bob had passed away.

I first met Bob when i hired on at SWRI in 1972. He was a key person in the Lab at SWRI and he taught me how to put strain gages on specimens that we were testing in the Lab at that time. He was a very nice guy*

“ Dear Loretta and family

*We read about the passing of Bob in the Exress News this morning.
We are saddened by his passing but we know that he suffered a great deal after his stroke. I am sorry that I have not kept up with your family. We will a*
