

Robert M. Ybarra

November 2, 1965 - September 23, 2015

Robert Ybarra, 49 of San Antonio, TX passed away on September 23, 2015 peacefully after a 4 year battle with cancer. He graduated from O.W. Holmes High School in 1984 and continued his education receiving a Bachelor's of Science in Computer Technology from Wayland Baptist University and an Associates degree in Applied Science in 1992.

Robert worked at the San Antonio Independent School District as an IT Technician for 28 years. He had a sincere passion for sports. He coached several teams in the Spurs Drug Free Basketball Leagues. He enjoyed sharing his knowledge, enthusiasm and fervor for the game with all of his players. He was an avid fan of the Houston Texans and San Antonio Spurs; never wavering in his support for his revered teams.

His battle with cancer was a testament to his extraordinary strength, character and will. He personified the words of Coach Jim Valvano "Don't give up... don't ever give up." He served as an inspiration to his family, friends and anyone who crossed his path. He will be remembered by his tenacious spirit as an exceptional son, brother, uncle, cousin and friend.

He is survived by his parents Roberto and Elizabeth Betty Ybarra, his brother Ruben Ybarra, his sister Brenda Ybarra, her husband John H. Pargas, his nephew John Adam Pargas, niece Vanessa Ariel Pargas, many other aunts, uncles and cousins.
